DEER HUNTERS ARE SLAIN AND INJURED

Two Fatalities Occur In This Section—
Felix Gilson Experiences
Narrow Escape

The careless hunter continues to maintain his reputation for rendering destruction and injury to human life. Already the list of fatalities has reached an appalling figure, besides the usual number of sportsmen have been wounded. Three accidents have occurred in this county and vicinity within the last week. Two have resulted in the deaths of the victims.

CASSIAN BOY DIES

Frank, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams, of the town of Cassian, who was accidentally shot while hunting, died a few days ago at a Tomahawk hospital. The boy was handling a 22 calibre rifle when the weapon suddenly discharged and the bullet entered his left hip. At the time, the injury was not regarded as very serious, but blood poison set in with fatal results.

As old residents of Oneida county, Mr. and Mrs. Williams have a retinue of friends who heartily sympathize with them in their trouble.

Hunter Bled to Death

Charleton F. Hodges, who travels for the Western Newspaper Union, was in the city Tuesday and informed us that while at Tomahawk, the previous day, he saw the body of a young man who had been shot near Heafford Junction, west of Rhinelander.

Later reports state that the unfortunate was John Abhold of Fond du Lac. He had been mistaken for a deer while hunting with his companion, Sam Kohli, who also lives in the southern part of the state. Kohli shot Abhold in the right leg just below the knee. The wounded man died from loss of blood while being rushed to the surgeon.

Gilson's Narrow Escape

Felix Gilson of this city is recovering from the injuries he received from the accidental discharge of his rifle. The wounds are healing rapidly and no danger from complications is anticipated.

Gilson and a friend were hunting near Pelican Lake. They had just killed a deer and were dragging the carcass through the woods. Gilson, who was taking the lead stumbled, and his rifle exploded. He had been carrying the weapon in such a manner that the bullet went through his right hand and left wrist and entered his left shoulder, narrowly missing his heart. In spite of his injuries Gilson managed to walk to the station at Pelican Lake where he boarded a train for this city for surgical attention. It seems almost a miracle that the accident did not result more seriously; the man is thankful to providence for his close escape from permanent injury or perhaps instant death.

PROBABLY STRUCK BY TRAIN

The opinion now prevails that Joseph King, who was found dead on the bottom of a ravine under a Soo bridge near Dunbar, was struck by a train. The trestle underneath which the remains were discovered is over 100 feet high.

It is the belief that King was walking along the trestle and was knocked off. Near his body was found a bottle of whiskey. He was last seen alive in an Armstrong Creek saloon and had left that village for Dunbar. It is probable that the man was under the influence of liquor when the accident occurred. He had friends at Ripon and Reedsville as letters taken from his clothes would indicate.

PURCHASE OAK TIMBER

A Bayfield dispatch in the Milwaukee Sentinel states that the Wisconsin Veneer Company of Rhinelander has purchased all the oak timber on the Wachsmuth Lumber Company's tract of land and also on the land of the Bayfield Mill Co. The company will log a great deal of this timber this winter. All the timber cut will be shipped to this city and as there are several hundred thousand feet, the company will continue logging operations near Bayfield for several years.

'BUS HORSE BREAKS LEG.

Bullet Ends Misery of Animal That Slips on Ice.

One of the old black horses that for years has done faithful service on the Rapids Hotel bus met with an accident early Monday morning that necessitated shooting the animal.

The bus was returning from the east bound Soo limited. When coming up Thayer street one of the team slipped and fell on the ice coated paving. The poor horse could not be induced to arise and it could be easily seen that it was in pain. Dr. Whiting, the veterinarian, was called and he found that the animal's left hind leg was broken. He advised killing the horse and Officer James O'Malley ended its misery with a bullet. The incident was a pathetic one and deeply touched many who happened to be witnesses. Eight passengers occupied the bus at the time of the accident and they were taken to the hotel in other conveyances. The horse was valued at about one hundred dollars.

STAPLETON GETS AN ANSWER TO ARTICLE

M. H. Cleary Replies In Catholic Citizen to Contribution From Rhinelander Man.

The following letter from M. H. Cleary of Galena, Ill., appeared recently in the Catholic Citizen as an answer to Matt Stapleton's article on the Catholic Church vs. the liquor evil.

While some of Mr. Stapleton's letter, as it appeared in your issue of November 6, was interesting, there was also room for disappointment. Brother Matt's Catholic soul seems to be troubled somewhat by doubt as to the exact attitude of the bishops of Wisconsin on the present phase of the liquor question, as it occupies the public mind. Now, brother Stapleton, contain your soul in peace. Your ecclesiastical superiors have solemn duties to perform, grave responsibilities are theirs. The position of the church has been clearly defined, even if not generally known.

The faithful are cautioned and warned to keep out of the saloon business, as it is a menace to salvation, and the sale of liquor, on Sunday, is unqualifiedly and unreservedly condemned as sinful. Thus did the Council of Baltimore in 1884, of which the lamented Archbishop Heiss was an influential member, officially set forth the attitude of the Catholic Church.

The teachings of the Baltimore Council stands as the living law, and all good Catholics, which, of course, includes the bishops of Wisconsin, are loyal to them.

Good souls, like brother Matt Stapleton, may, yea, will be the instruments in God's hands to encourage and sustain God's ministers in proclaiming God's law and moral duty of His children, in Wisconsin.

Don't fear brother Matt, the decrees of the Councils of Baltimore, formulated by the counsel and advice of Archbishop Heiss, were not adopted for display, as the brewer's condemnation of the irregular sale of liquor, is. While you may never have read them nor commented on while you attended church in Green Bay, there are many ways that that state of facts may be explained. They were not adopted to be hidden, but to be obeyed, and if you are not able to readily secure a copy of them through ordinary church channels, you will find them frequently referred to in the literature of the several Evangelical Churches. So, that if Catholics, apparently, are oblivious of their existence, our separated brethren recognize their moral force and divine inspiration. And thus, even if in a restricted way, are serving God's purpose.

M. H. Cleary.

SCHOOLS CLOSED YESTERDAY.

The public and parochial schools of this city closed yesterday afternoon for the Thanksgiving week end vacation. In many of the grades appropriate exercises were held and some entertaining literary and musical programs given.

At Eagle River the High school will be closed one week in order that the young men students may take advantage of the hunting season.

REV. WEDGE SPEAKS TO MONSTER CROWDS

Former Pugilist, Now Omaha Pastor, Is Here To Do Good Among His Fellow Men

"Wedge of Omaha" is nightly speaking before large audiences at the Congregational church in this city.

To the majority of the citizens of Rhinelander, especially the older residents, Rev. F. R. Wedge needs no introduction. His early career is still impressed freshly on the minds of the people, and he himself, admits that it was not a record of which any young man could be proud. He drank more than his share of bad whiskey, figured prominently in several drunken carousals, and spent more than six months in the county jail for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. In the sporting world he became known as "Kid" Wedge, the pugilist, and participated in a number of battles in the prize ring. There is no need to dwell longer on his past life—but it is good to note the wonderful transformation which has taken place in the man.

As a minister of the Gospel, Rev. Wedge is endeavoring to save the lives and souls of men and do good where he once did evil. To the young men he desires to be of help and guide the wayward ones from a life of wrong doing to the path of righteousness. While Rev. Wedge is not what could be properly recognized as a temperance lecturer yet he firmly believes that liquor is man's worst enemy and curse. This is one sad fact which past experience has taught him.

Rev. Wedge is pastor of the Monroev Presbyterian church, one of the largest houses of worship in Omaha. The building is equipped with gymnasium and public baths for the benefit of all the people of the city. The pastor says that the lowest bun is as welcome at his church as the biggest millionaire of Omaha. He wants to assist the drunkard from the gutter and convert him into a God fearing and useful citizen. Rev. Wedge has during his ministerial career accomplished much toward the spiritual uplift of mankind as the people of Omaha and other cities can testify.

Rev. Wedge arrived in Rhinelander last Friday. On Sunday morning he occupied the pulpit at the Congregational church and in the evening spoke at the Baptist church. At both services the attendance taxed to the utmost the capacities of the commodious edifices. Large numbers of people could not even find standing room and were forced to turn away, plainly displaying their disappointment.

Rev. Wedge spoke largely on his past life in Rhinelander. He referred tenderly to his sainted mother and related touching incidents which showed the tender love and devotion the woman had for him. Many times did the eyes of his hearers moisten with tears.

Rev. Wedge intends to remain in the city two weeks and will speak each night. He asks no charge, but gives his services free for the benefit of the young men of the city. That he is truly sincere in his work there is not a doubt and it is hoped that every person in the city, both young and old, will make an effort to hear him.

FAILURE CAUSES SUICIDE

The failure of the Blue Grass Land Company, which concern formerly had offices in this city, has caused one stockholder to take his life.

Henry Anderson, cashier of the State Bank of Baldwin, committed suicide Friday night by shooting himself in the temple in the back room of the bank, where his body was found sitting in the chair, revolver in his hand.

Anderson was quite heavily involved in the Northern Blue Grass Land Company and the Bank of Baldwin which has been worrying him for some time.

He was one of the county's most widely known citizens, a politician, Odd Fellow and Knight Templar. Three sons survive him.

Mrs. Chas. Peterson and son, Clarence of Scandinavia, and Mrs. Frank Peterson of Nelsonville are guests at the home of O. A. Kolden.

YOUNG HUNTERS NOT WANTED

They Are Being Scared From Woods Near Three Lakes

The care which is taken by deer hunters in the vicinity of Three Lakes to rid the woods of young nimrods who shoot at anything they see stir in the neighborhood of a run way is told by a man who has just returned from a ten days hunt there.

He said a young man from Elkhart Lake left the train with an apparent idea that he could find deer in all directions. No sooner was he on the depot platform than he loaded his rifle and in a crouching position followed the fence along the track looking for game. An old time hunter watched him and knowing the green shot would let drive at any moving object, fired a shot so that it struck a tree five feet from the Elkhart Lake man, who left for home on the next train.

ALLEGED FORGER IS STILL AT LIBERTY

Walter Feder Fails To Appear At Cleveland—Antigo And Ashland
Also Want Him.

Walter Feder, the young traveling salesman wanted for forgery by the authorities of this county, has as yet not been apprehended by the police at Cleveland, Ohio, his home city.

It was announced a few days ago that Feder had been taken into custody by the Cleveland officers but this was found to be untrue. The first letter from Chief Kohler of that city stated that Feder could be easily arrested at any time upon receipt of the warrant. Later the sheriff was informed from Cleveland that Feder could not be located there. The assumption is that he has become aware of the attempt being made to capture him and will remain away from the Ohio city. It is safe to believe however, that he will be unable to overcome the longing to see his family and friends and will sooner or later make his appearance. Sheriff Jilson has secured extradition papers and will go to Cleveland as soon as he receives word of Feder's arrest.

Two other warrants are out for the man both on forgery charges. They were issued at Antigo and Ashland.

Operated at Antigo.

The Antigo Journal contains the following regarding Feder's operations in that city:

Some time ago W. A. Stewart, manager of the Bee Hive roller rink in this city, was in Rhinelander and became acquainted with Feder. On November 3, Feder visited this city and presented a check at the First National bank for $25, signed by Marcus Feder and payable to Walter Feder.

The bank refused to cash it without an endorsement and Mr. Stewart endorsed it. Now he is out $25 as the check was returned from Cleveland and pronounced a forgery. Mr. Stewart swore to a complaint and a warrant was issued, but it was found that he had already been apprehended at the instigation of the Oneida county officials.

LET EVERYBODY HELP.

Large poster designs of the new holiday stamp issued by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculosis Association have been placed conspicuously about the city. The stamp will be put on sale in Rhinelander Dec. 1. All of the business men will be asked to purchase large lots of the stamps to be disposed of to their patrons. Here is a chance for the good people of the city to help a worthy cause at a small expense and it is hoped that all will take part in the movement with enthusiasm. Let every letter and package bear one of the pretty little stamps.

MAKES XMAS TREE HOLDERS.

The Rhinelander Refrigerator Company is manufacturing a patent Christmas tree holder for which orders are being received from all parts of the United States and Canada. The prospects are that the demand for this holder will become so heavy that it will be necessary for the company to increase the working force in order to turn out the specialty. At present the company is not strongly boasting of its new product and its big sale strictly to its merits.

Here's one case:

Mrs. P. N. Forsyth, Eagle River,

in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, as I have used them and they have never failed to give relief. Had I continued their use as I should, I would be well today. I suffered for several years from kidney trouble.

There were severe pains in my back and sides and my heart seemed to be affected. At times I could hardly get my breath and I felt as if I were choking. The kidney secre-

HEIRLOOMS FOR STOVE LIDS

Because a relative utilized precious pewter plates as stove lids, Publisher C. F. Carr of the New London Press, brother of County Clerk W. W. Carr of this city, is minus a goodly portion of what he regards as a most valuable and interesting collection of heirlooms in the shape of pewter tableware handed down in his family from Governor Wolcott, first colonial executive of Connecticut.

Only the teapot, sugar bowl and pitcher remain of the once complete set. Mr. Carr's paternal grandmother was a Wolcott. While the pewter ware was in the possession of another member of the family, the lids of a cooking range were lost while moving from one locality to another.

Stove lids were not to be procured
except at a distance, so the pewter dishes were utilized. At that time they were regarded as of little value, but Mr. Carr mourns their destruction greatly, for the pewter plates did not long survive the strenuous existence as substitutes
for stove lids.

EXCURSIONS TO CHICAGO.

The lowest excursion rates of the year are offered visitors to the "In-

and "International Horse Show of Chicago," to be held Nov. 27 to Dec.
10, 1900, also to the "United States Land and Irrigation Exposition," to be held in Chicago Nov. 20 to Dec. 4, 1900.

The International Live Stock Exposition is the latest, greatest and best live stock show of the year, where the champions of all other shows enter a final contest for the highest honors of the season. There will be a big celebration of its tenth anniversary this year, and no farmer, stock raiser or general visitor at all interested in agricultural advancement or development of the live stock industry can afford to miss this year's great show, which will surpass all previous events of the kind.

GET FIRST DIVIDEND

The Ironwood papers last week
gave out the news that the comptroller of the currency at Washington had declared the first dividend in favor of the depositors of the First National Bank, which failed last June.
The amount of the dividend is 15
per cent and it will be paid as soon as the checks, which were sent to Washington, are returned, which will be some time this week.

As soon as the checks are returned the receiver will mail receipts for the amount of the dividend to all of the depositors. It will be necessary for the depositors to sign and return the receipt, together with their proof of claim to the receiver, when their checks will be promptly sent to them.—Harley Miner.

NOTICE OF SALE

I will sell on reasonable terms
of payment to the highest and best bidder the homestead formerly occupied by Frank Sawyer and located near the factory of the Rhinelander Refrigerator Company in the South Park Addition to the City of Rhinelander. This is a large, modern, well built, and beautifully located house, with about an acre of land as a site. It would probably cost six thousand dollars to build
such a home as this at the present time. Bids will be received by me by mail at Madison, Wisconsin, at any time prior to December 15, 1900.
This property will be sold if a reasonable offer therefor is made,
but I reserve the right to reject any bid that in my judgment is unreasonably low.

Dated, October 23, 1900.

An exchange wisely says that a newspaper is in no sense a child of charity. It earns twice over every dollar it receives, and it is second to no enterprise in contributing to the upbuilding of a community. Its patrons reap far more benefits from its pages than its publishers, and in calling for the support of the community in which it is published, it asks for no more than in all fairness belongs to it, though generally it receives less. Patronize and help your paper as you would any other enterprise because it helps you, and not as an act of charity.

The charge is breach of promise. Mr. Winniger was married Oct. 21 at Watertown to Miss Louise A. Cook, a member of the Winniger company.

The slippery condition of the city streets during the last few days has proved a boom to the blacksmith business. The scenes at all the shops are busy ones; from early morning until late in the evening long lines of horses stand patiently awaiting their turns to be shod. At one shop Monday the smiths fitted one hundred twenty-seven sets of new shoes.

The manager of the "barn storming" pugilistic stars who gave an exhibition at the Armory in this city, two weeks ago, left the troop at Antigo, leaving a $20 board bill for the stranded glove manipulators to settle, and also neglected to pay his printing bill. The performers hailed from Minneapolis and it is probable that they will be obliged to walk back to that city.

Thanksgiving and Supplication

The last Thursday in November is near

Which always brings Thanksgiving day to mind.

We'll thank God for our lives and friends most dear,

And all the time a blessing which we find.

Our paths are made for us in pleasant places,

Peace and plenty has been our blessed lot.

We have no quarrels with our friends or neighbors,

But if we think we're perfect we've forgot.

We have our Heavenly Father and we thank Him,

For all His blessings and we plead with Him for more.

But give me neither poverty nor riches,

And we will thank and praise Him ever more.

"I suffered intensely from Locomotor Ataxia, and Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills gave me great relief. I have taken them for a long time, and some people say they are not good for me. To Mr. and Mrs. Portlance are extended the best of wishes for a happy wedded life.

MANY DEER BEING SHIPPED

Robert Robertson is assisting on the Northwestern express run between this city and Oshkosh. Owing to the big shipments of deer being made at this time of year the regular messenger is unable to attend to the work alone. So far there has not been as many deer sent out of Rhinelander this season as in previous years. Trappers claim that from the smaller stations along the road there has been large shipments of venison. The hunters who come to this part of the country from the large cities report good shooting and already the slaughter of deer has been heavy. The season ends November 30.

While the ice covering lakes and streams may be solid enough it is not advisable for the young people to venture thereon until it freezes to a greater thickness. In the local markets turkeys are commanding the fancy price of twenty-two cents per pound. No matter how plentiful the birds may be they are always certain to "roost high" enough for the consumer. This year is no exception and those who will have turkeys on their tables to-day will be forced to pay the price. At Thanksgiving time, the dignified old gobbler as he struts around the barnyard has but little conception of his true value and importance. There are some people of the opinion that the national bird should be the turkey instead of the eagle.

The suit which the veneer company began against the city a short time ago, because the city laid sewer pipes on land owned by the veneer company, has been withdrawn. Some think the whole thing was a case of bluff and it did not work.

The city gave the veneer company eight thousand dollars to set up business with and as gifts come easy the company asked the city to vacate a large number of streets in the neighborhood of the veneer plant without assigning a reason for so doing, and shortly after the city refused to comply with the request, action was begun against the city for putting sewer on the veneer's land which in no possible way could harm them. Many seem to be disappointed that the suit is withdrawn, they wish to see the result of the big scare.

BREWERIES CAN'T SELL

A very important decision has just been handed down by the Supreme Court of Indiana that breweries can not sell beer to private consumers. The point has not been decided in this state but probably will be now that the decision has been rendered in Indiana.

It has been decided in Wisconsin that breweries may sell to dealers but no action has been taken yet on their right to sell to individuals. If the point were taken up we believe the same decision would be rendered in Wisconsin. It is fair to the man who pays the license that he should have the right to the trade.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 23.—That a private consumer must buy his beer or liquor directly from a regularly licensed saloon and not from a wholesaler was decided by the supreme court of Indiana today.

The decision was given in an appeal from a lower court.

The Anti-saloon league is expected to use the decision in a campaign against the "social clubs" that flourish in "dry" counties. The decision will also operate against the very extensive "family trade" of breweries and wholesalers in all cities whether "wet" or "dry."

WASHINGTON LETTER

A determined effort will be made by the advocates of the Ocean mail subsidy bill to pass that measure at the next session of congress. Disguised under the name of "Subvention," "Mail Subsidy," and various other sterilized designations it is really an attempt on part of certain interests already well protected by law to get a gratuity from the United States Treasury. Once entered upon as a national policy it will grow until it will become an annual charge upon the Treasury of surprising dimension. A vast sum of money is being expended to advance the subsidy bill. Lectures are being sent over the country under pay to plead for the "Upbuilding of the Merchant Marine." They dwell eloquently upon the alleged humiliating spectacle of foreign flags be-decking the vessels of commerce in American harbors. Many of these eloquent orators are former members of congress. "Lame ducks," who were unable to get an office under the federal administration and must needs find a living in appearing on the rostrum to plead for Ship Subsidy ostensibly as a patriotic move but really as attorneys with retainers. The mails are being flooded with literature pointing out the necessity of revising the Merchant Marine. In some of the far western states where the sentiment against the subsidy has been strongest an organization has been perfected by congressional districts and salaried men put in charge of each district to spread the propaganda. Who is contributing the money for this campaign? It has not been raised by popular subscription among disinterested patriots. Parts of it can be traced to that little band of disinterested manufacturers of woolen goods in Boston. Not content with inflicting upon the country the woolen schedule in the Aldrich-Payne tariff bill they are advocating the passage of the Ocean Mail Subsidy.

The Secretary of the woolen manufacturers association in Boston, Mr. Winthrop Marvin, is and has been the chief worker for the Subsidy Bill. His special hobby has been a government subsidy for merchant vessels plying between Atlantic ports and Brazil and Argentina. The Subsidy Bill was drawn by Mr. Marvin and the report submitted by Senator Gallinger in support of it was also the work of the Secretary of the Woolen Manufacturers' Association of New England. Just why this Association of woolen men should be so interested in Ocean Mail Subsidy that they would employ a trained man to lobby for the bill and expend large sums in disseminating literature in support of it will probably not be clear to the average citizen. It will probably appear clearer however when it is understood that the vessels now owned by the woolen manufacturers go to Argentina and bring back wool for use in manufacturing and would probably be a great favor to the vessel owners if the government could be induced to charter them at a high price to carry the mail and practically pay the freight on the wool to be brought in competition with the product of the American wool grower. It must be admitted that this is hardly in accordance with that ancient understanding between the "Shepherds and the Weavers" to which Senator Dooliver had occasion to advert in the tariff debate last winter. But it is only another illustration of the New England idea of protection.

SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN OPENS.

Some light may be shed on the stand-pat methods of doing business when Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota speaks on the Progressive Movement in Congress, and Senator LaFollette's relation to that movement, at Milwaukee, Dec. 2nd. Senator Clapp is one of the rough and ready insurgents in the Senate. Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota, one of the insurgents in Congress, will speak at Milwaukee, Thursday night, Dec. 2nd, opening the campaign for the return of Senator LaFollette to the Senate. Leading Progressives from all over the state are planning to go to Milwaukee on that date to hear the first big gun of the coming battle.

The press of the whole country has been calling attention to the fight that is to be waged by the Big Business Interests to defeat Progressive Senators and Representatives. That the Progressives do not intend to let the battle go by default, and that they are organized for the fray, is evidenced by the announcement that Senator Clapp of Minnesota a hard shell insurgent, is to speak in Milwaukee, Dec. 2nd, opening Senator LaFollette's campaign for re-election. It is announced that other hold over Progressive Senators and Representatives who have no hard battles on their own hands in the coming campaign will take the stump for the return of Senator LaFollette, and the greatest fight of years is anticipated.

MONICO HAS AGED POETESS

"Grandma" Taylor Writes Poems to Keep Her Mind Occupied.

The New North this week gives publication to two Thanksgiving poems from the pen of Mrs. D. M. Taylor of Monico, better known to the residents of that village as "Grandma" Taylor. The venerable lady is over eighty years of age. She finds that time hangs heavy on her hands and to keep her mind occupied writes these little poems. She possesses much literary talent and several of her best efforts have appeared in past issues of this paper. At one time Mrs. Taylor and her husband attempted to write the history of their lives, but he passed away before the work was completed. It is her aim to yet finish the story. It gives her considerable pleasure to see her poems in print. In sending these two contributions she writes the following letter:

To the Editor of The New North:

Dear Sir:— I hope I am not bothering you and that you see some merit in my little productions. I am pretty old and I know that I must keep my armor bright by using what little God given faculties still remain, for if I cease to exercise my mental faculties (what few are left) then I shall run under far more rapidly than if I brush them up, and I like to see the lines in print. Please put these two little efforts in your nice New North and it will gratify my vanity. The story of the turkey is a true one and occurred in my neighborhood. Thanking you in advance as well as for past favors I remain truly yours, Grandma Taylor.

Monico, Nov. 19, '09. Despite her advanced years, Grandma Taylor is still quite active. She is a charming old lady and dearly beloved by the residents of Monico where she has long made her home.

Thanksgiving Day In Massachusetts In 1714

Have Thanksgiving customs and morals changed? Of course it is well known that our Thanksgiving is taken from the early New England Thanksgiving.

An old newspaper clipping contains a quaint account of an old Colonial Thanksgiving church service and dinner. It was written in the Year 1714 by the Rev. Lawrence Conant, of the old South Parish, in Danvers, Mass., and runs thus:—

"Ye Governor was in ye house and Her Majesty's commissioners of ye customs, and they sat together in a high seat of ye pulpit stairs. Ye Governor appears very devout and attentive, although he favors Episcopacy, and tolerates ye Quakers and Baptists.

"He was dressed in a black velvet coat, bordered with gold lace, and buff breeches with gold buckles at ye knees, and white silk stockings. "There was a disturbance in ye galleries, where it was filled with divers negroes, mulattoes, and Indians, and a negro, called Pomp Shorter, belonging to Mr. Gardner was called forth and put in ye broad aisle, where he was reproved with great carelessness and solemnity.

"He was then put in ye deacons' seat between two deacons, in view of ye whole congregation; but ye action was ordered by Mr. Prescott to take him out, because of his levity and strange contortion of countenance (giving grave scandal to ye grave deacons), and put him in ye lobby under ye stairs; some children and a mulatto woman were reprimanded for laughing at Pomp Shorter. "When ye services at ye meeting house were ended ye council and other dignitaries were entertained at ye house of Mr. Epes, on ye hill nearby, and we had a bountiful Thanksgiving dinner with bear's meat and venison, the last of which was a fine buck, shot in ye woods nearby. Ye bear was killed in Lynn woods near Reading.

"After ye blessing was craved by Mr. Garrich of Wrentham, word came that ye buck was shot on ye Lord's day by Pequot, an Indian, who came to Mr. Epes with a life in his mouth like Ananias of old.

"Ye council, therefore, refused to eat ye venison, but it was afterward decided that Pequot should receive forty stripes save one, for lying and profaning ye Lord's day, restore Mr. Epes ye cost of ye deer, and considering this a just and righteous sentence on ye sinful heathen, and that a blessing had been craved on ye meat, ye council all partook of it but Mr. Shepard, whose conscience was tender on ye point of ye venison."

GOYPHERS LOSE TO MICHIGAN

Result of Game Was Great Surprise to the People

The defeat of the Minnesota football team by Michigan at Minneapolis last Saturday came as a surprise to the majority of those interested in the conflict. The betting odds were all in favor of the Gophers and to use the slang expression Michigan "didn't have a look in."

When the battle commenced however, things looked different to the crowd. The Wolverines played all around their opponents and showed themselves to be superior at every stage of the game. The final score 15 to 6 proved a hard pill for the Gophers to swallow.

F. B. Moody, who is a former Michigan man, was among the Rhinelander delegation in attendance at the game. He was naturally much elated over the outcome. During the entire battle there was no one among the thousands of spectators who cheered more loudly for the Ann Arbor boys than did the assistant state forester.

In the game between Wisconsin and Chicago the teams tied for honors by a score of 6 to 6.

Yale won a victory over its old enemy, Harvard by 8 to 0. The results of other western games were as follows:

Illinois 17; Syracuse, 8. Oberlin, 26; Ohio State, 6. Notre Dame, 33; Wabash, 0. Indiana, 36; Purdue, 3. Kansas, 20; Iowa, 7. Nebraska, 6; Denver, 5.

There is no other tea quite as good as Ben Hur.

ADVICE TO WOMEN

A Message from a Famous Beauty Specialist to Women Lacking
in Energy and Vitality

Thousands of women vainly attempt to improve their complexions and to remove blackheads,
crows' feet and other blemishes,
through the use of cosmetics. This treatment fails because the trouble lies far deeper than the skin.
They are suffering from impure and impoverished blood. This condition is in many cases due to a catarrhal condition of the whole system which finds its expression in sallow, muddy complexion, dark-circled eyes, general weakness of the system, and perhaps most plainly in the weeping of mucous membranes that is commonly called catarrh.

In fact this whole tendency is properly speaking, catarrh. Banish this catarrh, and the complexion will clear as if by magic, eyes will brighten, faces become rosy and shoulders erect. Perfect beauty goes only with perfect health, and perfect health for women can only be obtained through one certain treatment—that which will cure
catarrh.

Mme. Swift, New York, the famous beauty specialist known throughout the world and an accepted authority on all relating thereto, states that the one positive and permanent relief for catarrh is Rexall Mucu-Tone. Here is her letter:

"I can strongly endorse the claims made for Rexall Mucu-Tone as a cure for systemic catarrh. Its tonic effects are remarkable. It builds up the strength and restores vitality. If women who are tired and run down, lacking in energy and vitality, will use Rexall Mucu-Tone,
they will praise as I do its strengthening and healing qualities."

Rexall Mucu-Tone works through the blood, acting thus upon the mucous cells—the connection and inflammation of which causes local catarrh. This remedy causes poison to be expelled from the system, and the blood is purified and revitalized. Thus the natural functions of the mucous cells are restored,
and the membranes are cleansed and made strong. We know that Rexall Mucu-Tone does relieve catarrh. We positively guarantee to refund the money paid us for this remedy in every case where the user is dissatisfied. It is a builder of vigorous health and a creator of good complexions. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. Mail orders filled. It may be obtained only at our store, The Rexall Store,
J. J. Reardon, Rhinelander, Wis.

MAY SUE RAILWAY CO.

Joseph Quinn and John Kelley, the two young traveling salesmen who were recently arrested on the charge of robbing the Northwestern depot in this city and later discharged for lack of evidence, were here this week on their regular monthly trip.
Kelley informs a reporter for this paper that he intends to commence action against the Northwestern railway company for false imprisonment.
The outcome of such a case will be watched with interest.

SIR TURKEY GOBLER

Sir Turkey Gobbler I think of you
with much concern of late.
Strutting around the barn yard, unconscious of your fate.

And to show that I am your friend,
Sir,

I now to you attest, that I will not eat a morsel of your Kingly breast.
But will try to persuade my people
with me to take the test,
To dine without your meat this Thanksgiving and let you have a rest.

Sir Gobbler, you're a proud old King.
You're monarch of fowls, we see.
While Chanticleer rests on a pole;
You soar up high in trees.

But King or Vassal, I can see true
traits of Kingly valor, for once,
Your mate was sitting and on your rounds to guard her.

She was found dead, then you commenced to sit in place of her.
Covering the eggs, you kept them
warm hatching every chick.

You hovered them, you scratched
for them, and fought away the hawks.

You have done your work as nobly,
no mother could do better,
Than rear the brood, not losing one.
You have done what you assumed
to. Your Duty to the letter.

—Mrs. D. M. Taylor, Monico, Wis.

SHE IS STILL SINGLE

Rhineland Maid Indignant Over
Story That She is Married
From far away Everett, Wash., comes a letter to the New North from a little Rhinelander maiden who is evidently much agitated over the rumor that she has taken unto herself a husband. The story, according to her statement, is wholly without truth. In compliance with her request we present the letter
to our readers:

Everett, Wash., Nov. 7 '09.
Editor of New North,
Rhinelander, Wis.

Dear Sir:—To whom it may concern: I want the people in Rhinelander to rest assured that I am not married, and furthermore have no such intentions. I hope the people in Rhinelander don't think one can pick up a good man anywhere
on the streets, because you can't,
and that is the kind I want if I have any. Of course there are good ones here the same as in Rhinelander. So far as the man they have married me to, he don't want me. I must have some nice friends at home to believe such a story. I hope this will convince them of the truth. Please put this letter where everybody will read it.

This is a fine country to my notion
I think I will stay out here a year then if the people feel different toward me to what they do now, I will come back. Thanking you for this favor, I am sincerely yours,
ORA PORTER GRANT.

"I have used Chamberlain's colic

it the best remedy I have ever tried for that trouble. I bought a bottle of it a few days ago from our druggist, Mr. R. R. Brooks. I shall ever be glad to speak a word in its praise when I have the opportunity."

INSTEAD OF CHEAP AND BIG CAN BAKING POWDER

You simply cannot get as good results from the cheap and big can kind—the baking cannot be as evenly raised—it cannot be as delicious—it cannot be as pure and wholesome—because the quality is not there. WANTED—To do family washing.
Enquire of Mrs. LaVelle, 17 Harvey street.

Mrs. Williams of Berlin is the guest of her daughter, Miss Myrtle Williams, a teacher in the city schools.

Miss Hazel Divers of Potlatch, Idaho, was married at that city yesterday to Robert Burns of Spokane, Washington. The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Divers, former residents of this city.

The Baptist church will hold its own service of worship next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Pastor Bergstrom will preach on the theme, "The Kinsman of the Lord." The Sunday school will hold its session at the accustomed hour. In the evening there will be a union service at the Armory in which the Baptists will join.
In a busy portion of the downtown district, the other day, the New North man noticed an occupied business house the front windows of which were partly smeared with soap left there since last Halloween. The proprietor appears to have plenty of idle time but is evidently too shiftless to wash the windows. This same man will not advertise because he says it doesn't pay, but he is forever grumbling that trade with him is poor. And more—he doesn't take the home paper because he says he knows everything that happens in this town long before the paper is out—and besides he receives a weekly journal from the big city that gives him all the news for only twenty-five cents per year. Such "enterprising" citizens are a drawback to any live town.

WARREN TOPPAN, Lynn, Mass.
Cured of severe compound cold and cough by Vinol

"From Dec. 20, '08, to March 1, '09, I had three bad colds, one on top of the other. I got so weak I could hardly get around. Nothing seemed to help me until I began to take Vinol. The change was magic. Three bottles completely fixed that compound cold and stopped the terrible cough—and what surprised me most, at the same time it cured me of a severe stomach trouble that has bothered me for 20 years. Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine."

Mr. Toppan is one of Lynn's most prominent and highly respected merchants, whose word is as good as his bond.

The reason Vinol is so successful in such cases is because it contains the two most world-famed tonics—the medicinal, strengthening, body-building elements of Cod Liver Oil and Tonic Iron.
